PREAMBLE OF TENDER

Tamil Nadu Arasu Cable TV Corporation Ltd (TACTV) has started its Cable TV services all over Tamil Nadu (except Chennai) on 02.09.2011. TACTV upgraded the existing digital head end at Chennai with the MPEG-4 technology and started digital transmission from 01.09.2017. TACTV is having majority of the Cable TV operators under its fold covering most of the households with its cable TV services. TACTV's cable TV services include free to air as well as most of the major pay channels. The reach of TACTV is phenomenal covering most of the households in the districts. At present TACTV is having an active digital Subscriber base of 18.75 lakhs all over Tamil Nadu out of this, Chennai City alone is having 0.70 lakh digital subscribers. With rapid digitalisation, TACTV is expected to reach a digital subscriber base of 60 lakh subscribers shortly.

In the Cable TV industry, in addition to the programmes provided by satellite TV channels, local channels are also providing programmes through MSOs. These local channels are paying Carriage Fee to the MSO to carry their signals. In order to avoid monopoly and also to select the local channels in a transparent manner, applications were invited by TACTV from interested private local channels. As only limited number of private local channels can be telecast from the of TACTV digital head end at Chennai, it is proposed to conduct tender cum auction for allotting slots to Private Local Channels in the digital cable TV service of TACTV (State Level and Chennai based).

The State Level PLC will be telecast all over Tamil Nadu in Digital Mode from TACTV's Digital Head End at Nungambakkam, Chennai.

The Chennai PLC will be telecast only in Chennai City Limits in Digital Mode from TACTV's Digital Head End at Nungambakkam, Chennai.

Applicability of Tamil Nadu Transparency in Tender Act, 1998

This Tender will be governed by the Tamil Nadu Transparency in Tender Act, 1998 and the Tamil Nadu Transparency in Tender Rules, 2000 as amended from time to time. (<http://www.tn.gov.in/gorders/finance/fin446-e.html>)

c) This agreement can be terminated by the multi system operator (MSO), if the PLC fails to pay the subscription amounts on or before the due date after a notice of 21 days.

10. EFFECT OF SUSPENSION:

In case of default by the PLC, the multi system operator (MSO) may instead of terminating the Agreement, suspend the transmission of the Local Channel in accordance with Law, without any liability, responsibility or obligation to any of the customers of PLC for such period until the PLC remedies the default.

11. EFFECT OF TERMINATION

11.1. In the event of the defaulting on the payment for two consecutive months, the 2 months Performance Guarantee remitted will be adjusted against the dues and the allotment will stand terminated.

11.2 In the event of the Termination, the PLC shall pay all amount due and payable by the PLC to the MSO up to the date of the Termination.

11.3. The MSO shall reconnect the service, in the event of the Termination, if the PLC shall pay the entire Carriage Fee due including the period of suspension of transmission.

11.4 The expiration and termination of this Agreement shall be without prejudice to the rights which have already accrued to either party.

11.5 Upon termination of this Agreement, the parties may, by mutual consent, revive this Agreement. The multi system operator (MSO) shall reconnect the service upon such revival subject to such terms and conditions as are mutually agreed.

12. GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

12.1 The rights and obligations of the Parties under the Agreement shall be governed by laws of India.

12.2 It is agreed that the MSO and the PLC shall co-operate with each other in the best possible manner and do all reasonable act, deeds and things as may be required by the other to successfully comply with the terms of this agreement. Disputes, if any shall be referred to arbitration as contemplated by the Arbitration and conciliation act, 1996, the Venue of Arbitration shall be Chennai and the language shall be English. The Arbitration proceeding shall be conducted by a Sole Arbitrator to be appointed by the MSO. The place for adjudication of all disputes, which arise under this agreement, shall be Chennai and the same shall be in accordance with Indian Laws. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties.”

13. FORCE MAJEURE

13.1 Failure on the part of the multi system operator (MSO)/PLC to perform any of its obligations shall not entitle either party to raise any claim against the order or constitute a breach of this Agreement to the extent that such failure arises from an event of Force Majeure. If through Force Majeure the fulfillment by either party of any obligation set forth in this Agreement is delayed, the period of such delay will not be taken into account in computing periods prescribed by this Agreement. Force Majeure will include act of God, earthquake, tides, civil disturbance, terrorist attack, war like situation, or enactment of any law or rules and regulation made by the Authorities or any circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the parties herein that directly or indirectly hinders or prevents either of the parties from commencing or proceeding with the consummation of the transaction contemplated hereby. The Party affected by such Force Majeure event shall promptly notify the other party of the occurrence of such event. It is agreed between the Parties that lack of funds shall not in any event constitute Force Majeure. If the conditions of Force Majeure, continue for a period exceeding one month, the Parties shall meet to decide upon the future performance of the Agreement. If the Parties are unable to agree upon a plan for future performance, then the Agreement shall be terminated upon notice of either party to the other, on expiry of one, month from the date such notice is given.

13.2 Any accrued payment/obligation of a Party prior to the commencement of Force Majeure shall survive the termination of this agreement pursuant to such Force Majeure.
